Sept. 22, 1850.

My dear Miss Hunt,

If you send Agnes yesterday, she will have given you for me a brush to give to Kate, from me; you acting in that behalf as my substitute. With the ~~letter go~~ brush, will you give also the enclosed note.

If you should not have been, will you or Walter go to Agnes & ask her for the brush; not giving the note until you get the other; but presenting both together.

Believe me, my dear Miss Hunt,

Your faithful Obedient

Mr. Hunt.

Will you give my love to all at home, especially Bruno.
